

(HI APT KIR III.

Declaration of Louis XVII I. — • Duinnurin/, watchod- News of a Hpy— -Kemiirkiihlc trait of rouratfo and proscm-ci of mind-- Ncrrssity of vigilance at Hamburg- Thes K'uitf < » f Sweden— His hullctiiiH -Doctor (Jail Prussia covets Hamburg- Projects on Holland — Negotiations for ponco — Mr. Fox at the liead of the. British rabhmt- Intended asHassi nation of Napoleon—Propositions made through Lord Yarmouth Proposed protection of tho Hanse Towns - Their stato Aggrandizement of the Im-]>orial family — Neither pear.e nor war •— Sebastian i\s mission to (!oiiKt;ui-tinoplo Lord Lauderdale at Paris, and failuro of the no^otiatJonB Austria, despoiled Emigrant pensions •••• Dumourioz's intriguos Princ<^ of Me«kU'.ni»ir^-S«hworin— LoiKittau.

I HAVK biM»n soini*wh;iti difl'uso. respiau'. tintj i,li(/ va-st; (*nt(u*prist\s of M. Ouvranl, and on the disastrous stato of thi» finances during the rninpai^n of Vienna-. Now, if I may so express myself, I shall return to the. Minister Plenipotentiary ^ e.abi-not, where several curious transactions oe.e.nrr<Ml. Tlu^ farts will not always !
><» j^ivti in a. eonneeted series, heeause there was no more relation between the reports which I received on a tfreat variety of subjects than then^ is in tlhe pleading of the barristers who succeed eae.h ol-her in a, court of justice.

On the 2d of January, 1800, I learned that many houses in Hamburg had received by post packets, ea.ch containing four copies of a declaration of Louis XVIII.
Ihimouriox had his carriage filled with copies of this declaration when ho p;issed through Brunswick ; and iu that sma.ll town alone more than .' $000 were distributed. The si/e of this declaration rendered its transmission by post very easy, even in I'Yaneo.

All my letters from the Minister recommended that I should keep a strict watch over the motions of Dunmnricz; but his name, wan now a.s seldom mentioned an if he had ceased to exist. The. part he acted seemed to bo limited to disseminating pamphlets more or less inHigniicant.